A PLACE TO HUNT OR TRAIN ALL YEAR

Wolf River Game Farm is a family operation with a full-time resident manager. Established in 1986, we offer year-round hunting with Bobwhite Quail, Chukar Partridge and Pheasants from September through March. Or, perhaps try our Honor System Training Program from mid-April through September and train your own dog with our Quail, Chukar, Pigeons, Pheasants or Mallards, with a choice of five different training fields.

Located just 35 miles from Green Bay or Appleton, Wolf River Game Farm consists of over 450 acres where hunting areas are spread out eliminating interference from other groups. Special attention is given to a variety of cover to maintain ideal conditions for year-round activities and still hold those late season birds. Sections of corn/sorghum and sunflowers are planted to enhance natural areas of marsh grasses, brushy thickets and cattails, with ponds to cool the dogs in warm weather.

Traveling from outside the area? Whether you are here to hunt, train or just passing through, stay in one of our lodging units with all the modern amenities. Each unit has TV, private bathrooms, kitchenettes, beds or bunks, with fax and phone service available.

European shoots are a great group activity for 10 to 20 people where everyone enjoys superb pass shooting on your choice of Pheasant, Chukar Partridge, Bobwhite Quail and clay pigeons. If you have a group interested, call the farm for more details. Throughout the year we do offer open sign-ups for any number of people. Call to put your name on our mailing list for these events.

HUNTING SEASON

We offer three options: a card system, a half-day hunt or a quick two-hour hunt. Birds can be added at the per bird prices to any package except the scratch hunting package.

CARD SYSTEM

FULL SEASON – late September through March 31st

Card packages purchased for the season must be used during that time; any remaining birds will be forfeited. The minimum release is two Pheasants or four Chukars or five Quail per half-day for weekday use. WEEKENDS and HOLIDAYS require a minimum release of five Pheasants or ten Chukars or fifteen Quail per half-day. Guests are free with a limit of four guns per field. Cards must be paid in full before the season with 50% due at the time of the order or pay in full by June 15th to receive the early bird discount.

HALF-DAY PACKAGE

Please review the insert for current prices and feel free to call us with any questions or special events you would like to plan at our farm. Stray birds are FREE except on the two-hour hunt. We are open seven days a week including holidays with the exception of the first seven days of gun deer season.

HONOR SYSTEM TRAINING PROGRAM OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Wolf River Game Farms training program is a unique resource our reliable and trustworthy customers allow us to offer. From mid-April through September, holding pens are maintained in our south field with Bobwhite Quail, Chukar Partridge, Pigeons, Pheasants and Mallards stocked as available. No reservations are taken and a one bird minimum per 30 minutes is required.

Individuals help themselves to birds and pay only for each bird removed from the pens. You are allowed to shoot our birds all year. Training takes place in up to five different locations as marked by signs in those areas.

This allows multiple trainers to work simultaneously. Ponds are located near all areas to help during warm weather. We also offer electronic release traps for rent while using our facilities along with various training aids. Strays are FREE of charge. When finished with the training session, go to the clubhouse and complete an envelope with the information requested, place the payment in the envelope, seal and insert into the drop box. Tags are available in the clubhouse for each harvested Quail, Pheasant or Mallard. They are delicious!

THIS IS AN HONOR SYSTEM.
PLEASE HELP KEEP IT THAT WAY.
